Venezuela Revolt Has Slight Red Tinge To Its Background

Berlin Talks To Continue

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The Atlantic allies agreed Friday to continue negotiations with the Soviet Union on Berlin but served notice they would not be lulled into a dangerous sleep by Soviet soft talk on the Communist-encircled city.

Having approved a unified posture toward the Soviet Union, however, the foreign and defense ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization witnessed these sharp differences among themselves.

The Netherlands criticized U.S. efforts to settle the Dutch-Indonesian dispute over Dutch-ruled West New Guinea, calling Washington's policy vacillating, informants said.

The Italian delegation withdrew support of a broadening NATO nuclear policy after Italy's failure to elect a president in renewed parliamentary balloting Friday. Italy had helped frame the so-called nuclear guidelines policy on tactical use of weapons now primarily in U.S. hands.

The French made no secret of their dislike of nuclear policy proposals coming up Saturday at the NATO meeting.

Portugal's Foreign Minister A. Franco Nogueira made known his government's dissatisfaction with U.S. policy toward Portuguese Angola in a private meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The 15-nation alliance's endorsement for continued diplomatic probing of Soviet intentions over Berlin came during a full-scale cold war review.

None of the ministers voiced opposition to continuing the talks with the Soviet Union but almost everyone coupled his approval with a warning to keep up the alliance's nuclear guard.

Rusk had started the day with a far-reaching review of Berlin, disarmament, nuclear tests and East-West relations.

He said the United States is ready to sign a test ban treaty at any time the Russians agreed to adequate inspection.

Management, Union Protest Recommended Wage Hike

CHICAGO (AP)—Railroad management and union leaders, protesting against a recommended 10.2-cent wage hike for 450,000 workers, invoked government policy statements Friday to support opposite stands.

Management said the hourly wage increase recommended by an emergency board Thursday for members of 11 nonoperating rail unions was too much and inflationary. The unions said it was neither inflationary nor enough to pay employees fairly.

Look For Help

Apparently, both sides looked to President Kennedy for help. The President, who took an emphatic personal stand in the steel wage-price dispute last month was in New Orleans Friday for a trade policy speech.

James E. Wolfe, head of the railroads' joint bargaining team, said the proposed pay raises would add $105 million a year to operating costs of the 212 railroads involved. He termed it "inflationary and not a true and reasonable productivity increase."

"I think consistency demands that the administration frown upon anything that will be destructive of its policy of curbing inflationary trends," Wolfe said.

In Washington, Geo. E. Leighty, chairman of the unions' joint negotiating committee, said the affected employees—those who do clerical, service and maintenance work but do not actually operate the trains—have had no increase in their real wages since 1958, during a period when real wages rose substantially for other workers.

Termining the recommendation a

Sup. Court Rejects Plan For Senate

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The State Supreme Court Friday refused to take immediate jurisdiction of a lawsuit aimed at forcing legislative reapportionment of the Pennsylvania Senate.

In effect, the rejection of a petition by members of the Committee of Seventy, a non-partisan civic group in Philadelphia, means that the case must go through regular legal channels—first in Dauphin County Court.

The petition filed by Attorney Edward G. Bauer Jr., also had asked the Supreme Court to delay a decision on its reapportionment demand until sometime in 1963, to give the legislature a chance to realign the Senate seats according to population.

Loyal Troops Rush Into Stricken City

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt's government rushed loyal troops into Carupano Friday and sent warplanes menacingly overhead to combat a revolt by 450 marines and military policemen at that coastal city.

An official source said 50 of the rebels quickly deserted and that the rebel garrison—reported to have staged the uprising under the direction of two commissioned officers—was left with only a sergeant in charge.

The Defense Ministry said the rest "will soon be dominated."

Radio Caracas announced the air force called on the marines to surrender or face bombing of their barracks.

Interior Minister Carlos Andres Perez told reporters the warplanes had flown over Carupano on observation flights. He denied a rebel declaration, broadcast from Carupano, that the planes machine-gunned the city.

The minister said all was normal elsewhere. There had been an unofficial report that rebels seized the fishing village of Rio Caribe, 16 miles from Carupano.

No Noticeable Effect

A dispatch from Maracaibo, the center of Venezuela's oil industry, said the revolt news had no noticeable effect on that city and activities in the surrounding oil fields were normal.

The uprising was pictured here as having a Red tinge, though political philosophy in Venezuela's armed forces often leans to the right.

A government source said the rebels, seizing the Carupano radio station, broadcast attacks against Betancourt "such as the Communist party uses, accusing him of servility to imperialism."

The revolt leaders were identified by this source as Navy Cmdr. Jesus Molina Villegas and a Capt. Testamack.

Molina was described as the brother of a navy officer under arrest on a charge of subversive activities.

Administration sources said peasants blocked highways around Carupano—a fishing, trading and manufacturing center of 15,500—to hold the rebels in check until they forces could close in. Other peasants were reported to have armed themselves and converged on the city to help in its recapture.

The rebels cut communication lines at Carupano at the outset of the rebellion soon after midnight. They seized the city radio station before dawn and began broadcasting calls for others to join in their effort to oust the government.

Steered a bit left of the middle road, Betancourt's administration pleases neither extreme rightists nor the Communist leadership of this relatively rich South American nation. Red-inspired disturbances have cropped up periodically in recent months.

Post Casualty List

Conditions of the bodies made identification difficult. Officials, 24 hours after the crash, posted varying casualty lists.

Police said 154 died and 165 were injured. The fire department listed 152 dead and 336 injured, 144 seriously.

Police and Japan National Railway officials said the accident resulted because a freight train passed through a red light near Mikawashima station. It jumped the tracks and was sideswiped by a crowded outbound commuter train. Stunned passengers climbed down to the tracks and then an inbound commuter train roared into the wreckage, jumped the tracks and plunged down an embankment.

Employee Jailed

The engineers and conductors of the freight and outbound commuter train were jailed, along with a station signal man.

"We have determined that a green signal light was an impossibility," said Shochi Kimura, chief police investigator.

Norifumi Minakami, 38, the freight train engineer, told news-men he had never missed a signal in 18 years of railroading.

The five, if convicted, face maximum three-year prison terms.

Attack On U. S. Court Is Approved

CHICAGO (AP)—Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, gave 100 per cent approval Friday to Sen. James O. Eastland's attack on the U.S. Supreme Court. And, going farther, he said Chief Justice Earl Warren should be impeached.

The chunky, gray-haired leader of the controversial right-wing group made his statements during a question-and-answer period that followed a speech to the Executives Club.

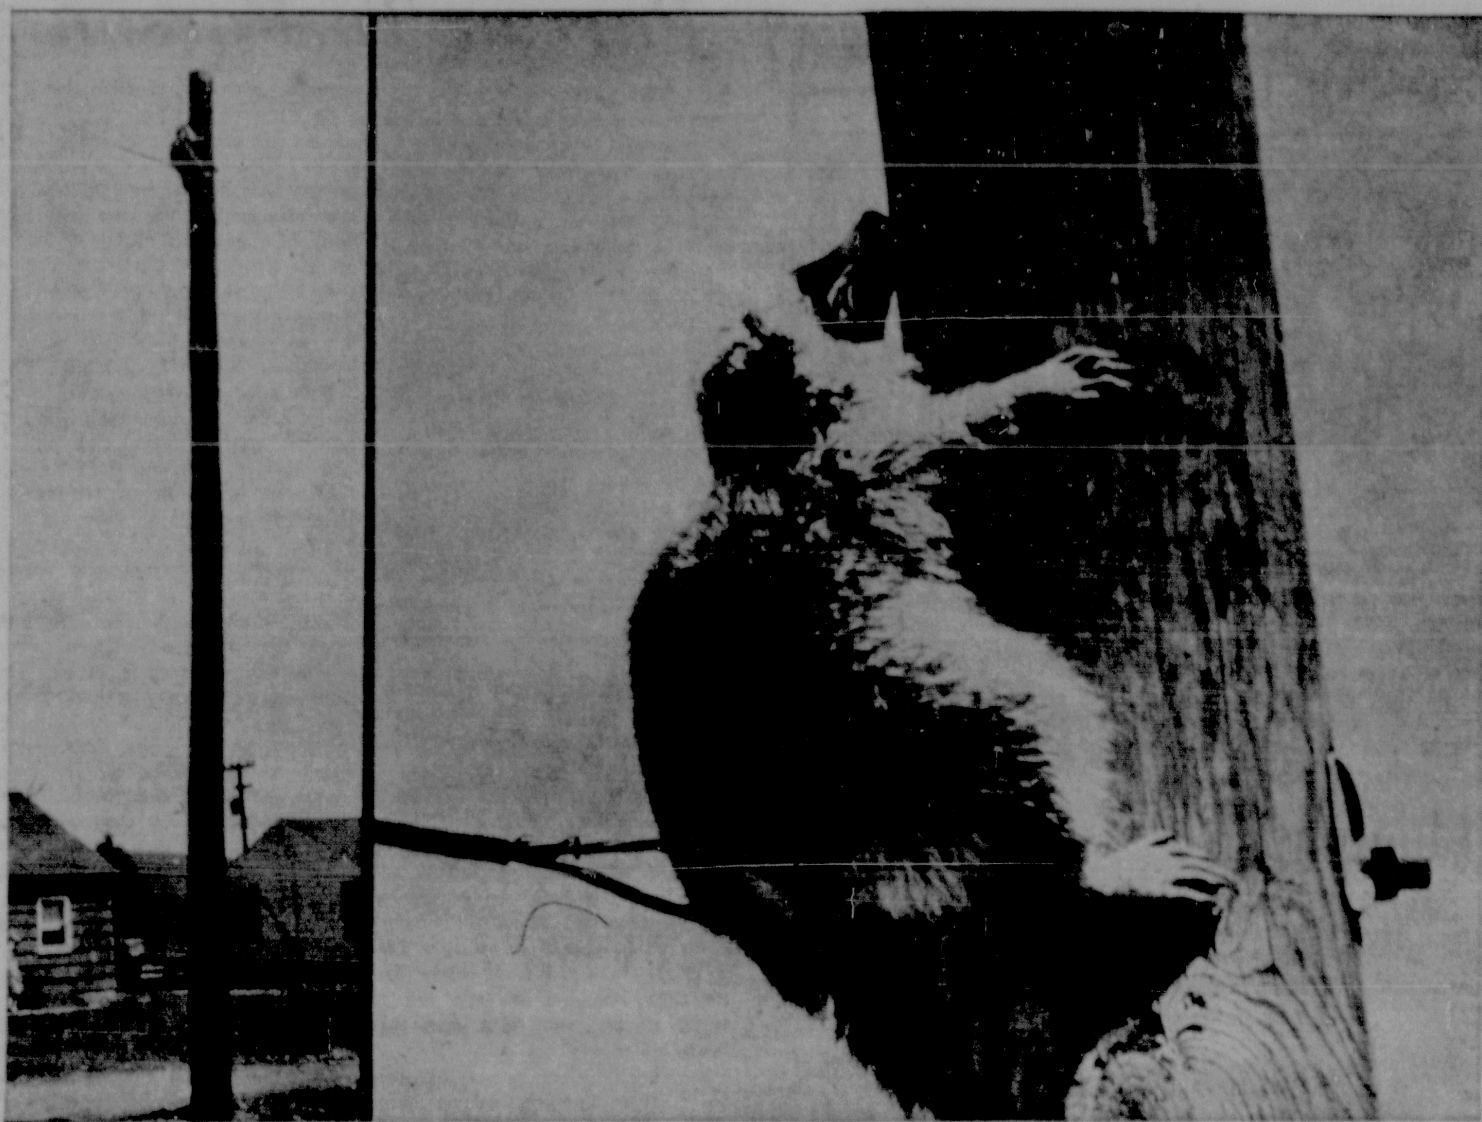

One member asked if Welch agreed with Sen. Eastland, D-Miss., who asserted Wednesday that a Supreme Court majority has "upheld the position advocated by the Communist party" in some recent decisions. The Mississippi's Senate speech drew protests from both sides of the party aisle.

"I agree 100 per cent," Welch replied.

To a query about his society's attitude toward Warren, Welch replied: "We never had accused Warren of anything but violation of his oath of office to uphold the Constitution."

Welch said court decisions have "broken down constitutional safeguards."

JFK Calls For U.S. To Maintain Trade Lead

By ED TUNSTALL

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—On the banks of the Mississippi River where captains of commerce helped build America, President Kennedy called on the nation Friday to maintain its trade leadership among the world's free countries.

America, he said at a new $12-million wharf in one of the nation's greatest ports, stands at a crossroad in its foreign economic policy—"trade or fade."

Open Partnership

"For what we are moving toward is an open partnership among all free nations," he told a crowd of about 5,000 and a four-station television simulcast, "a gradual leveling of trade barriers that will draw the whole non-Communist world together with the strings of economic self-interest."

The city built by great steamers gave the President a thundering welcome. Police Supt. Joseph Giarrusso estimated the crowds that lined the highway and streets from the airport to the wharf at 100,000 at least and another 20,000 greeted him at City Hall where he spoke to the city's school children.

Location Handpicked

He came south—he handpicked New Orleans for this address—to boost his trade program which he has termed the most important item before this session of Congress.

The trade partnership, he said, "will be based on what already comes close to a trillion-dollar economy." And it will be "specifically and initially expressed in terms of a genuine Atlantic partnership—between the Common Market of Europe and the common market of 50 United States."

More trade, he said, will mean more jobs, a firmer national security and a strengthened foreign policy.

"It will produce nearly 90 per cent of the free world's industrial power," he said of his proposed trade expansion program, "the lion's share of its technical skills, two of its greatest markets for raw materials, and a very large portion of the capital for investment and development."

Extended Benefits

The program will be contagious, he said, in that it will "extend these benefits of these new opportunities to the continents of Asia, Africa and Latin America . . . and, finally, it will pose to the leaders of the Communist world a direct, deep and abiding challenge."

The President indicated that a few people and industries might be hurt, but the projected trade act contains safeguards to protect them.

But "no one . . . is going to be sacrificed to the national interest with a medal and an empty grocery bag," he said.

On the other hand, the President said the nation could raise its tariffs, restrict the flow of capital, reduce commitments and let its toes slip into the gap.

"But this administration," he declared to an audience that cheered frequently, "was not elected to preside over the resignation of America from its manifest destiny."

What the President's program basically seeks is the power to reduce, and in some cases, wipe out tariffs on a reciprocal basis.

From New Orleans, the big jet carried the President and his party to Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., where he reviewed a display of Air Force might.

Attempt On Nasser's Life Is Denounced

CAIRO (AP)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser is sound and well, an informed source says, and spent Friday playing tennis. Published reports that the United Arab Republic's chief executive was wounded by a gunshot last weekend in an assassination attempt were denounced as lies.

The informant said Nasser's tennis game was interrupted briefly as the reports were given to him but that he smiled and resumed the game.

False Reports

"False assassination reports did not disturb the president's usual daily life," the informant added. "The reports caused some stir in Cairo, where thousands either attended or watched on television a soccer match for the Egyptian championship."

"Such reports—like all other reports on the United Arab Republic by Radio Israel or pro-Israel newspaper—are baseless and devoid of truth," the informant said.

The London Daily Telegraph printed an account Thursday of the rumored shooting, attributing the bulk of its information to Israel's government-controlled radio station, KOL Israel.

It said the Israeli radio on Monday "quoted strong reports of an assassination attempt, following this with strong reports that President Nasser had succumbed."

In Jerusalem, KOL Israel denied it originated the rumors. A spokesman said the station was not aware of reports that Nasser had been shot at until the Daily Telegraph published them.

Military Chiefs Cite Vigilance Necessity

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Military chiefs of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization warned Southeast Asia of the necessity for constant vigilance and readiness to conduct a combined action against Communist aggression.

Warning Issued

The warning was issued Friday in a communique after a three-day review here by top military planners for SEATO.

"Everything was assessed," said Lt. Gen. Pelagio Cruz of the Philippines, the conference chairman, when asked whether present tactics against Communist Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam had been considered as a guide in similar situations.

He gave the same answer when asked if plans had been taken up to defend Thailand against an attack across the Mekong River from Laos.

The other delegates included: Adm. Harry D. Felt, U.S. Pacific commander; Adm. Sir David Luce, British Far Eastern commander; Gen. Francois Yves de la Cheneliere of France; Air Marshal Sir Frederick Scherger of Australia; Air Marshal M. Asghar Khan of Pakistan; Rear Adm. P. Phipps of New Zealand; and Air Marshal Dawee Chullasapaya of Thailand.

Call For Vigilance

The call for vigilance was sounded as the royal Laotian government in Vientiane declared the fall Thursday of Muong Sing in northeast Laos was a grave blow to the defense of a large area bordering Thailand.

Muong Sing is the site of the first of a chain of jungle hospitals set up in this part of the world by

Peiping Claim

Peiping radio claimed local "patriotic armed forces"—the Pathet Lao—captured the town with the aid of an uprising by the defense unit.

The government charged that two battalions of Red Chinese troops captured the village and then moved back over the border five miles to the north, leaving the pro-Communist Pathet Lao in charge.

Muong Sing had an airstrip which was useful in defending the northwest provincial capital of Nam Tha, which has been half-encircled by Communist forces since early this year despite a year-old cease-fire.

Malcolm MacDonald, British co-chairman of the 13-nation Geneva conference on Laos, arrived in Vientiane. He told reporters all conference members were anxious that the bally royal government agree to a coalition government with the Pathet Lao and neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma. An agreement could then be signed to sustain a united, independent and neutral Laos, he said.

Divorce Record For Brevity Is Established

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay, to the surprise of almost no one, reconciled Friday.

The headline-happy actress and her strongman husband established a new modern Hollywood record for brevity of a divorce action. Less than 24 hours elapsed between the time the suit was filed Thursday and the make-up.

"We have resolved our differences," Jayne announced at a news conference. "I will withdraw the divorce suit as soon as I get around to it."

It was a divorce action unique in Hollywood history. The two spent the night under the same spacious roof.

"I loved Mickey just as much yesterday afternoon when I filed the suit as I do now," she said.

The couple had their first big fight Thursday. The word "divorce" was uttered by Jayne. The words, "go ahead," by Hargitay.

Waring To 'MC' Hospital Campaign's Victory Dinner

INTERNATIONALLY known director, conductor, musician and showman Fred Waring will be the master of ceremonies for the special entertainment next Friday night at the Victory-Dinner of the Monroe County General Hospital Expansion Program.

The announcement of the Monroe County celebrity's acceptance to participate was made yesterday by the Hospital Program's general chairman Arlington W. Williams and arrangements committee chairman Robert Kranendonk.

The occasion is scheduled to mark the "over-the-top" meeting of the county-wide effort to raise $1,000,000 for expanding the General Hospital's facilities. The amount raised to date is $882,530.

Commenting on the more than $100,000 to reach the victory figure Williams said, "We have every confidence that all divisions will complete their work by the meeting on May 11. If they complete it with the same success we have had to date, I am confident we will achieve our goal."

"As master of ceremonies for the special entertainment, Shawnee Inn's famous proprietor will undoubtedly add a fitting note of glamour to the hoped-for-victory meeting," said Kranendonk.

Some of the outstanding members of the well-known radio, TV, stage starring Pennsylvanians will perform during the night.

The 7 p.m. meeting at East Stroudsburg State College will be the final report meeting for the Family Gifts division under the leadership of Robert F. Davenport.

Additional workers in the division were reported by Mrs. Ralph Basso, Ward 4 in East Stroudsburg. They include the Misses Frank Ashcroft, Thomas Breitwiser, George Caramella, James T. Harmon, Jr., Virginia Read, Betty Riedmiller, Dorothy Savage, Ethel Vollers, Isabelle Wile, Walter Olenick and Mr. Alvin Merring Sr.

Rev. John Fife, captain of Hamilton Township reports these additional workers: Mrs. Howard

As it was, the explosion sent a ball of flame rolling over houses, cars and trees along a sparsely peopled boulevard.

This was the third booby-trapped vehicle set off here in recent days.

The blast of the gasoline tanker was one of the most spectacular attacks by the secret army, which hopes to bait the Moslems into vengeful violence that might destroy independence for Algeria.

It succeeded in bringing crowds of infuriated Moslems into the streets, where they stoned a bus and European cars.

Moslem nationalist agents and police regained control of the mob while fighting the blaze.

Individual pistol and submachine gun attacks killed at least another eight Moslems in Algiers.

In Oran, the government arrested 12 persons in the wake of Thursday's explosions inside the government's own administration building.

Today's Lesson:

In A Pagan Society

By N. SPEER JONES

KEY WORD for today's subject might be "Boldness."

The letter on which our lesson is based is Peter's first epistle (written about 60 A.D.) to the Jewish Christians, "exiles of the Dispersion," who were scattered about the Mediterranean. Our lesson also encompasses some early experiences of Peter, almost 30 years before he wrote this letter.

In both the experiences and the letter, Peter — who had once lacked the courage even to acknowledge that he knew the persecuted Christ — shows that he has so overcome his weakness that boldness in witnessing for Christ is now one of his most salient characteristics.

This change on Peter's part was evident soon after the descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost (the seventh Sunday after Easter), when Peter and John in Christ's name healed the lame man at the temple (Acts 3:1-10). When the amazed crowd collected, Peter was bold enough to admonish them for their sin in having denied and crucified Christ, and to exhort them to repent.

In the trial the next morning before the high priests, Peter again boldly accused them of their sin, then even more boldly refused, under threats, to keep silent about Christ, saying, "We cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:5-20).

This boldness was evidenced by all the company of Christ's followers in Jerusalem in those early days, who willingly gave up their wealth — their economic security — in order to spread the word of their beliefs (Acts 4:32-35).

As this word spread farther, so that people from other towns brought their sick to Jerusalem to be healed, the high priests once more imprisoned them. Once more, Peter and the others, through the Holy Spirit within them, were able to stand their ground, boldly accusing their accusers.

Now we see a different example of boldness. One of the Jewish council had the courage to come to the apostles' rescue. When Gamaliel spoke out, telling the council to leave these men alone, he addressed a body so enraged that they were ready to kill (Acts 5:33-39).

This Gamaliel, a doctor of law, was undoubtedly the same man who was the teacher of Paul (Acts 22:3). "So great was Gamaliel's fame that one of the ancient Hebrew books of the 'Mishna,' when he died, said, 'The glory of the Torah ceased, and purity and sanctity did also.'" (J. R. Lumby, quoted in Pelou-

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Acts 4:5-12; 1 Peter 2.

Soon after Pentecost, Peter and John, on their way to the Jerusalem temple to pray, came across a lame man begging. Peter said he had no money, but would give him what he had; in Christ's name he ordered him to walk. The man leaped up, completely healed.—Acts 3:1-8.

So many people—about five thousand—heard of this miracle and believed in Christ that the high priests, jealous, arrested the apostles. Peter and John boldly accused their accusers of murdering God's Son, and refused to obey their injunction to keep silent.—Acts 4:1-20.

The little company of Christ's followers in Jerusalem was so bold that its wealthy members gave up their economic security to share with the poorer. When one of them, Ananias, hypocritically hid part of his wealth, he was struck dead, as was his wife. Acts 4:32-5:5.

The second time the apostles were arrested, one of the Sadducees was bold enough to rise in their defense. Gamaliel said that if the apostles' undertaking was "of men," it would fail; but if it was "of God," they would be against God.—Acts 5:33-39. GOLDEN TEXT: Romans 12:2.

bet's Select Notes, p. 166).

Many years later, in his letter, Peter encourages lonely believers by reminding them that they are a chosen race, "God's own people," so that they "may declare the wonderful deeds of Him" Who called them "out of darkness" (1 Peter 2:9).

Not only must they be bold in declaring their faith, but they must give their words validity by living as blameless a life as possible. Peter urges strict compliance with man's laws in order to squelch the rumor that Christians, with their talk of God's and Christ's kingship, are not plotting overthrow of the empire.

Christians, in other words, must be bold enough to live temperately.

Hate no one; hate their vices, not themselves.

Teachers Told 'Uncertain Road Ahead For Education'

'Uncertain Road Ahead For Teacher Education'

MORE than one-hundred co-operating teachers and public school administrators from several counties and school districts, meeting at the East Stroudsburg State College yesterday, heard Dr. Allen D. Patterson state that "The current attacks on teacher education from the left and from the right, in Washington, in Harrisburg and, in fact, all over the country, warn us that in the next decade our road will be uncertain, perhaps hazardous, and that, any way you look at it, there will be CHANGES MADE."

Number One Authority

Dr. Patterson, the keynote speaker of the all-day meeting on student teaching, was introduced by Dr. LeRoy J. Koehler, president of the host college, who pointed out that Dr. Patterson is no doubt the number one authority in Pennsylvania on student teaching.

GOP Foes Exchange Verbal Blows

CLIFFORD Heller, Republican candidate for Monroe County representative in the General Assembly, said Thursday night that charges of bossism and king-making in reference to him are "irresponsible." Raymond A. Roberts, Jr., chairman of the Gerald A. Snyder committee for the same nomination, retorted last night that Heller should shed some of his supporters.

Heller, speaking before the Middle Smithfield Republican Club, said:

"And finally, as I am a candidate, I must assume that the reference made to bossism and king-making must apply to me. I can further state that I do not feel that this irresponsible statement applies to any of the people with whom I have been working. They are dedicated to one thing—a good clean healthy Republican party."

In Rebuttal

In rebuttal, Roberts had this to say:

"The charge of 'irresponsibility' in regard to my statement regarding 'bossism' and 'king-making' behind Mr. Heller's campaign is based on my personal resentment of the activities and statements attributed to the county chairman (Parke Unangst) and the minority of the executive committee that have identified themselves with Heller's campaign."

"Roberts urged Heller to 'disassociate himself publicly from those whose consciences apparently allow them to indulge in slander, 'poison pen' letters and all the trash of irresponsible, self-interested minds and get down to the issues.'"

Local Girl Pageant Entry

JOYCE Haswell, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Haswell, Glenbrook Heights, Stroudsburg, is the final entry in the Miss Pocono Mountains pageant to be held Tuesday on the stage of the Sherman Theater.

A sophomore at East Stroudsburg State College, she is a graduate of Holy Rosary High School, Scranton, where she was a member of Student Teaching, and he was one of the founders, and the first president, of the Pennsylvania Association for Student Teaching.

Patterson predicts that there will be much more emphasis on intellectual preparation and academic work in our state colleges in the coming decade.

"Groups such as the Ford Foundation and in Pennsylvania, the Governor's Committee on Education, want more academic courses and tend to minimize the importance of education courses and student teaching. We must combat this, but, we have something to learn from it."

He went on to say that his college, Lock Haven, where he is assistant to the president, will have, for instance, their English majors take 47 to 49 hours of English content courses. Most of the other state colleges, including ESSC, require 32 or 33 hours.

On the other hand, Lock Haven will have its junior secondary majors spend two hours a week studying, at first hand, the public school system, visiting classes, etc.

Academic Majors For All

There is much argument and discussion in Harrisburg, at present, according to Dr. Patterson, on the idea of requiring students majoring in the elementary and health and physical education curriculums to have an academic major.

The discussion goes like this, Patterson reported: To be a good teacher, a true member of the teaching profession, you must be an educated person, and so you have to have the discipline and the understanding of the content of a subject in the academic field of knowledge. Even if you do not need it in the classroom, you will need it in the future, if you are to associate with other professional people in your community."

Profession Should Govern

Another argument going on in Harrisburg at the present, is that a State Council of Higher Education should be appointed to govern the state colleges—that these should be taken away from the State Department of Public Instruction.

"Those who advocate this, say that doctors govern themselves through the medical profession, so why should not teachers, as members of a profession, govern themselves?"

Following this speech, the group broke up into sectional meetings which continued until 3 p.m.

Dr. John R. Wildrick, director of student-teaching and placement at the East Stroudsburg State College, was overall chairman of the conference.

$739,730 Budget Adopted By Eastburg School Board

The debt service calls for a total of $102,437.54. This includes $2,300 to the sinking fund, $2,000 as interest on loans, and $98,137.54 in rental to the authority.

The board reelected William W. Lee, Jr., as treasurer for another year. It also retained Bensinger and Bensinger as solicitor.

'Guerilla' Warfare At Dingmans

DINGMAN'S FERRY — More than 500 Army soldiers, Marines and civilians will participate in a military problem in the Stokes State Park, N. J., and Dingman's Ferry area over the weekend.

Some 150 Army personnel from a New Jersey base, who specialize in guerrilla warfare, will move into the area early today. A spokesman for the unit would not say where the men would operate or by what method they would come into the area.

Civilians, who are land and homeowners, number close to 200 and were placed in various locations of the area last night. The spokesman did not say what part the civilians were to play in the operation.

Capt. John T. Enoch, USMC, officer of the 7th Rifle Co., USMC, Dover, N. J., said, "We will move into the area tomorrow (Saturday) early in the morning to set up a command post."

"Following the establishment of the CP men from the organization will set up defenses on both sides of the Dingman's Ferry Bridge to protect it from guerrilla action," he added.

Defensive Action

The Marine reserve unit numbers more than 175 men and their part in the problem will be to combat guerrilla action.

It is believed none of the spokesmen would confirm the report that in addition to the 500 troops in the area there would be an additional force of engineers and approximately 200 paratroopers participating.

The engineers are supposed to replace the bridge at Dingman's Ferry with a floating pontoon bridge. What part the paratroopers might have in the overall problem is unknown.

The problem will end Sunday afternoon.

A Friendly Blackjack

Paul Rand Dixon, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, assured advertising men the other day that if the agency is given power to order immediate halts to advertising campaigns, such power will be used against only "a few bums."

All of you gentlemen, he said in effect, are worthy and honest, and have nothing to fear. But you know how some of your competitors are. . .

This plea for power concerns the public, as well as the ad men. Competition has its greatest beneficial effect for the consumer when bargains and qualities of similar goods are widely advertised. Otherwise, how would the consumer know when something better or cheaper came on the market?

What Mr. Dixon wants is the right to issue "cease and desist" orders halting advertising immediately, without having to go to the courts for injunctions. The judgment of a single agency will prevail. Should the advertiser disagree with the motion that his ads were in violation of the law, it would be up to him to fight the FTC through the courts.

In other words, whereas our citizens are now presumed to be innocent until proven guilty, they will be treated as if they were guilty until they can persuade a court to let them prove their innocence.

Placing this power in the hands of the FTC at this time, when the Administration has treated some pretty reputable companies and citizens as "bums" would be an invitation to trouble. Advertisers would become timid about offering bargains of any novel nature, or making full claims for the improvements in products. The customer would be less well informed.

Unscrupulous competitors slyly could use the FTC to make trouble for honest advertisers.

The FTC has had power to prosecute violations in advertising since 1914. Many cases are brought each year, and courts decide them on their merits.

Mr. Dixon's cohorts and subordinates should not be given the power to decide for themselves who is and who is not violating the law.

Opinions Of Other Editors

Traffic Court Jam

The chaotic misapplication of justice in the nation's traffic court is surely no small factor in the mounting disregard for law and order which marks this age.

In the view of the American Bar Association, which has a permanent program for the improvement of traffic courts, they produce an avalanche of hastily reached decisions leading to penalties that in some cases are far too severe and in others too lenient.

A driver who ran a stoplight at a fantastic 100 miles an hour, struck another car and killed two persons while injuring five others, wound up with a $22 fine.

Unnumbered individuals arrested for traffic violations never actually get into the court system at all. Cities and towns all over the country have their "scofflaws" who flout the traffic summons. Chicago has a pile of four million forgotten summonses in a court building basement. Now and then a scofflaw is caught. One city recently crowned a new king who had ignored more than 200 tickets.

Meantime, the grubby mills of many traffic courts are raking in money from thousands of "guilty pleaders" and an only slightly smaller number of protesting defendants who may get no more than two minutes to make their case.

A city traffic court which heard

66,000 speeding and traffic light cases in 1960 acquitted only five defendants. A flock of cities frankly depend on traffic fines to help balance their budgets, and flatly order judges to "bring in more money" when the take is lagging.

The American Bar Association now offers a consultant field service to help interested traffic court officials at all levels. The aim, of course, is to apply decent standards which will assure justice and efficient court operation.

Above all, this means allowing defendants time to present their cases and a chance to question their accusers. Uniform procedures, adequate clerical personnel, techniques for educating offending motorists are also advised by ABA.

Most experts say the courts have no business serving as revenue producers. Some would abolish totally the system of fines, and direct all minor penalties toward restricting or revoking driving privileges.

Professional legal judgment is clearly that traffic court justice in this country has largely broken down. With 75 million motor vehicles on the roads and millions more coming, complete collapse is the harsh prospect unless modernization programs like the ABA's are given wide and continuing public support.

Plain Civics

My friend and colleague, Westbrook Pegler, wrote a sentence which gives me an opportunity to return to a favorite subject, namely, the increasing lack of precision in describing our form of government. We have three coequal branches in our government: the Legislative, Executive and Judicial. They are equal in authority, but there is a system of checks and balances in the Constitution which ties them together while simultaneously keeping them apart.

The Executive consists of an elected Administration which includes the President, the Cabinet, the independent agencies and more recently, such war agencies as the National Security Council, the Atomic Energy Commission, etc.

The President is absolute in his authority over the Cabinet. Our Constitution makes no provision for independent Cabinet officers. They are all secretaries to the President, assistants to him, the effective servants of his policy. Pegler says:

"The Department of Justice was so partial to any administration whose creature it happened to be that the idea of enforcement of laws against the party's own henchmen was ridiculous in a bitter way."

If an Attorney General disagrees with the policies of his President, he is always free to resign and to make a public statement as to the reason for his resignation. In Great Britain, of course, it is different. Each Cabinet Officer is elected to Parliament and therefore holds office in his own right. He does not resign from Parliament if he leaves the Cabinet. He may defend his course by a speech in Parliament, as a result of which the Government might fall and a new election would have to be held.

Our form of government has a long history, preceding the Constitution (1788). Since the Constitution was adopted, there have been 23 Amendments to it; the first ten, generally referred to as the Bill of Rights, are really an integral part of the original document and some of them appeared earlier in some colonial charters and in the Constitutions of newly-formed states. Without them, the Constitution could not have been adopted.

The Prohibition Amendment was cancelled out by the Anti-Prohibition Amendment.

Of the 23 Amendments, therefore, 12 have not really been amendments. The remaining 11 in no substantial manner altered our form of government, which is today, perhaps the most unchanged form of government on Earth. And in it, the Department of Justice is an office which is part of the Administration and is therefore under the final direction of the President who alone is responsible to the citizens for it at an election.

A citizen who finds himself enmeshed in a quarrel with the Department of Justice has three possible recourses:

1. He may go into the Courts and bring a complaint either as to law or equity. The Federal Courts, on the whole, have a long history of jealous independence of the Administration and the Attorney General does not necessarily win his case;

2. He might appeal to a Congressional Committee for an investigation. This is a political act, because Congress is a political body;

3. The citizen might appeal to the resident, to his Senator or Representative, or to the Press.

It is unfortunate that in this generation, even informed persons speak loosely of our form of government and of the responsibilities of particular officials. Perhaps a reason for this is that as the Executive has grown so enormously and so many personalities emerge into headlines the centers of authority and responsibility are often obscured.

For instance, the foreign policy of this country is the responsibility of the President. He alone makes final decisions. The Secretary of State is the President's assistant in this field. In the Kennedy Administration there are many men of outstanding reputations. Some even possess political power and have followings. Adlai Stevenson, for instance, was twice a candidate for the Presidency; Averell Harriman had been Governor of New York State; "Soapy" Williams of Michigan.

Off The Record

By Bob Clark

Probably the most popular young politician in these parts is Warren (Mag) Loney, Monroe County's ever-smiling treasurer. Many times we have heard that "Mag" would be the ideal choice of the behind-the-scenes politicians in any county runoff.

Experts in the political field feel Loney, a Democrat, could draw just as many Republican votes because of his magnetic attitude and sound, fundamental reasoning.

Perhaps, we might be a bit premature, but we wouldn't be too far wrong in saying a new political star is on the Monroe County horizon.

Harold (Jake) Jacobson is driving the "Wells Fargo" mail stage coach from Allentown to East Stroudsburg every night.

The East Stroudsburg Marine reservist is looking for someone to "ride shotgun" with him during his trek over the highways from the Queen City through "Indian Territory."

Officially Jake now trucks the mail for Norman Gregory's post-office in East Stroudsburg.

Sam Everitt, the physical educator at Barrett Elementary, claims he has the two best student teachers in the business.

Everitt, a Stroudsburg resident, lauds daily the efforts of Miss Pat Tross and James Wilde, East Stroudsburg State College students, who assist "mighty mite" in his duties at the Pocono Joint offspring school.

Speaking of Sam brings to mind that another Everitt will be employed at the Stroudsburg Playground this summer. The newest Everitt will be his daughter, Tricia.

The employment of Tricia will be the third Everitt to dot the scenery at the playground. Sam is a veteran instructor; two years ago Dick helped out; and now Tricia.

Incidentally Sam's father, the late Art, was one of the founders and promoters of the Stroudsburg playground some 40 years.

The only one missing of Sam's immediate brood is Millie, his wife.

"She's afraid of water," Sam counters as the reason the well-known hair stylist bypassed playgrounding activities indoctrination.

About Town

One of the ironic comic side-lights of the recent steel drama was the awakening of several reporters at 4 a.m. by the F.B.I. to check on a steel executive. Because there was considerable humorous outcry against this routing of reporters out of bed, an Associated Press man in Washington now sticks his head into the Attorney General's office every evening about 6 o'clock and says, "Don't call me, I'll call you."

Editor, The Daily Record:

I'd like to thank the Stroud Union School Board for this thing they've done for Water Gap. It's the first time in my remembrance that practically the whole town has been united for a single cause. In fact, I think I'm safe in saying it's the first time a thing like this has happened since our Grandfather day when the best way to indicate the location of Stroudsburg was to say "It's near Delaware Water Gap." It's a wonderful feeling to be part of a community that will lay down its paws and pick up its sword for the sake of its children.

I'll probably be accused of being here for sentimental reasons as I happen to be proud of the fact that I graduated from the Water Gap School. Incidentally, I also am a property owner and a taxpayer—a fact which I do believe to be incidental in this question. Perhaps it is for sentimental reasons that I am so interested. If you call it being sentimental to want the children of today to have the advantage of as good a start in life as we had.

The first years of a child's education are of most importance. The things you learn as a child are the things you remember as an adult. Think about it — You probably can remember lyrics of songs you sang in grammar school — but how many titles, even, can you remember of songs popular within the past few years?

We want the children to have the most advantages possible, and what better advantage can we give them than a good basic education? Those in government are now advocating a moratorium on school district consolidation as it is a very great problem to provide quality education in big districts.

Ever since that day in 1835 when Mr. Dutot gave the school and the bell — oh yes, the bell — I just want to take a minute on this. I was doing a bit of research over the weekend and came upon this fascinating story about the bell. It's truly a thrilling story. After seeing the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia, Mr. Dutot acquired a bell for atop his home. This bell was rung with great vigor everytime a state was added to the Union, when the Monroe Doctrine was passed, and on the 50th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, he rang it so hard that he almost cracked it.

Anyway, he afterwards presented it to the school and during the years that followed, the bell was stolen twice. The second time the people of Stroudsburg refused to return it. In 1861, the people of Water Gap laid down their plow shares and came to Stroudsburg and sued in court for the return of the bell! There's a parallel here — of course, this happened many years ago for the bell on the school — Now the whole school is in jeopardy!

The administration here will have to agree that scholastically the pupils from the Gap must be compared favorably with its own native sons and daughters. There have been valedictorians, salutatorians, outstanding athletes, and many have gone on to become honor students in colleges.

The list of graduates of the Delaware Water Gap School is indeed most impressive. A few

There have been many, many nurses and school teachers.

Yes, we all may be proud of the Water Gap School alumni. The children in Water Gap today are still receiving an outstanding start. I'll wager that some of you have never been inside the Water Gap School. I've had permission to invite you either as a group or individually, to visit the school. Please make yourselves familiar with the school, the faculty, the children and their accomplishments. In fact, it may be worthwhile to familiarize yourselves with the subject of this debate — "Our School" — you'll be most welcome at any time.

We hear a lot about "Good Neighbors" lately. That's part of the slogan of the Hospital Expansion Program. I hope the Hospital drive doesn't have a monopoly on this phrase as it's a good one. I ask you, please be good neighbors to your neighbors on the other side of Fox town Hill and let Water Gap keep its school. I promise you, you won't regret it.

Comments On Math Contest

Editor, The Daily Record:

On Wednesday, May 2, the Monroe County Council of Teachers of Mathematics conducted their twelfth annual Monroe County Mathematics Contest. The Council would publicly like to recognize the organizations which helped to assure the success of the contest:

(1) The Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club, Barrett Lions, and Industrial Management Club for the generous cash donations which were used for prize money.

(2) The East Stroudsburg Area Joint School District for the use of the cafeteria for the contest.

(3) The Daily Record for their splendid cooperation regarding publicizing sample problems and their solutions and their general publicity of the contest.

(4) The Stroud Union School District for the use of their facilities to correct the contest papers.

(5) The Monroe Security Bank and Trust Company for their donation of inscribed ball point pens which were given to all contestants.

Also, the Council would like to thank Miss Ruth Flory, retired mathematics teacher from the East Stroudsburg Area Joint School System, for her many hours which were spent inscribing the certificates for each student that participated.

It is largely because of the interest shown by the organizations and individuals cited that 325 students of Monroe County have been possibly stimulated to greater achievement and interest in mathematics.

This is of vital importance in our society today because of the many changes which are taking place in mathematics. The changes in mathematics in progress at the present time are so extensive, so far-reaching in their implications, and so profound that they can only be described as a revolution. There are three basic causes for this so-called revolution: (1) research in mathematics, (2) automation, and (3) automatic digital computing machines.

In regards to the research in mathematics, the twentieth century can be called the golden age of mathematics, since more mathematics, and more profound mathematics, has been created in this period than during all the rest of history.

The automation revolution consists of the introduction of machines that control machines, and of the consequences of the use of such machines. Examples of automation abound everywhere. Long distance telephone dialing is a simple but impressive example of automation that is so common that it often passes unappreciated.

The automatic pilot that flies our jet airplane is another example of automation. Guided missiles provide still another example. Complicated computers and control mechanisms are required to lift a missile from its launching pad and to place it in orbit. A final example is provided by the computing machines that are programmed to control milling machines for cutting complicated three-dimensional shapes from wood or metal. The above examples of automation have influenced the "revolution" in another way. Not only has it created the necessity for solving complicated design and development problems, but it has contributed an important tool for their solution. This tool is so important that it is the third cause of the "revolution" — the automatic digital computing machines.

This computer has made it possible for mathematical theory to be teamed with the computing machine to produce answers that are required by physicists, engineers, and others. One example can best illustrate this. About 100 years ago an Englishman named William Shanks computed "pi" to 707 decimal places. Working with pencil and paper, he devoted 20 years to this undertaking.

In 1949, however, the computing machine known as the ENIAC computed "pi" to more than 2,000 decimal places in 70 hours. Some time after 1949, another machine computed "pi" to more than 3,000 decimal places in 13 minutes. Still later, a smaller machine computed "pi" to 10,000 decimal places. By 1960, "pi" had been computed correctly to 10,000 decimal places so many times that history does not record all of them. The importance of the electronic digital computing machine arises not from the fact that certain calculations can be carried out more quickly than heretofore, but rather from the fact that computations which were formerly completely impossible can now be made quickly and efficiently.

The implications of this "revolution" for our schools are clear. We must put forth whatever effort may be required to insure that the education provided by our schools, and in particular, the mathematics education provided by our schools, is adequate for the needs of our times.

It is my personal wish that the organizations and individuals who have previously helped our contest will continue to do so in future years so that we can continue to meet the needs of our youngsters. There has been a great deal done in the past, but there is even a greater job to be done in the future.

Very truly yours,

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Just once I wish they'd have sidewalk days when my time isn't budgeted down to the last measly minute. The most I get of it is the traffic jams I run into on the way through town, and I always feel as if I'm missing something.

There's something about the hurdy-gurdy type music through the loud speakers, about the crowds and confusion of the midway that makes everybody feel that way, I guess, maybe because we were all conditioned in childhood by carnivals and amuseuses.

Moreover things seem much more like a bargain when they're heaped on a table and pawed through than they do neatly stacked in their compartments inside, for some peculiar reason.

The same jumbled reason, maybe, why something that costs $2.08 seems so much more of a bargain than something that costs $3 although what we'd do with the two cents I don't know, now that the Main St. parking meters won't take them.

We seem to have an infinite capacity to fool ourselves. Weak-willed dieters seem to think that the hot-fudge sundae won't have so many calories if they eat it in little bites. Unenthusiastic dusters feel they are working if they stand with the dust cloth in their hand in front of the television set.

Students with spring fever think they're studying if they have their book open even if their eyes and their thoughts are focused elsewhere. And by Friday night, I think I'm writing sense if I just keep hitting the typewriter keys.

Harold Eaton gave the invocation. A buffet was served from tables set with white cloths, lavender tapers and napkins. A five-tier wedding cake, topped with a cluster of wedding bells, was a gift of the bride's parents. It was flanked by vases of spring daffodils, forsythia and bridal wreath.

THE
SHOPPER

Had anyone told me it would someday, somewhere be possible to purchase a wrist watch, valued from 45.00 to 92.50, for only 24.99, plus tax, I would have thought them mad. But seeing is believing, and I stood over Betty LaBarre of our Wyckoff jewelry department the other noon hour and watched her open one box after another to reveal the attractive contents.

My own eye was caught by a delightful little watch in 14 Karat white gold case with a delicate chain on the bracelet, giving it, if anything, an additional look of being precious. A small diamond was set into either side of the watch face. The trade name, which I am not permitted to mention, is a very important one known to everyone who reads the ads and wears fine jewelry, and I marveled that we were able to offer such quality merchandise at the price.

To me, this is not just a rare opportunity to purchase a watch you will cherish, but the ideal price to pay for a timely gift... for the bride, or the graduate, the birthday or anniversary celebrant, who is particularly near and dear to you.

Many of the watches have a three year guarantee. I understand, and it seems to me we've a style to please just about everyone. Hurry in... there's no time to see them like TODAY.

Dick Kishpaugh, head of our Fabrics and Drapery departments, has asked me to remind you that an auction sale will be held Saturday, May 26th, in the Batery Barn, at the corner of Cherry Valley Road and Route 191, in benefit of Stroud Union School Band. Everyone is urged to support the band by attending, and also by emptying their attics now, and donating any salable merchandise to the sale. Some of the items needed are glassware, rugs, chairs, tables, china, lawn furniture, tools, lamps, snow shovels, lawn mowers, Christmas decorations, clocks, radios, antiques of all kinds—in fact anything that you yourself may not be using but which is too good to throw out.

There will be a truck near Stroud Union Flag Pole each Saturday this month from 10 to 2 o'clock to receive contributions; also, the barn doors will be open for those wishing to bring donations there. For further information, telephone HA 1-1642.

If your fancy leans toward things that are fancy, you'll be charmed by the collection of miniature accessories now being shown in Bea Gorgy's department. There are some very interesting and widely varied items... such as a red velvet pin cushion, set upon a circular gold "stool" at the very center of which is a dressmaker's dummy, also of gilded metal. Another velvet pin cushion, in pastel color, is the back of a metal turtle. There are magnetic holders for bobby pins in several styles, suited to use at home or in the purse. Silent butlers, heavily jeweled with cloisonne at the center, stand on graceful legs. Gold-metal cigarette cases, designed to hold one pack, are clasped with a cluster of gem-set flowers; miniature hand mirrors in an antiqued-gold back, are decorated with a spray of pearl-set blossoms. There is a gilded metal case in which to carry one's charge plate, and one unusual holder for pins is in the form of a dear little gold metal chair, the velvet seat and back of which are in cushions. (Besides its usefulness, this would be just the right size for many doll houses.) There are also lavishly ornamented boxes for rings topped by cushions to hold pins, and dozens of other items which evade me completely as I try to recall. At any rate, see them—they are interesting, different, imaginative and cute, and priced from 1.00 to 2.98. NEW TOO AT WYCKOFF'S is an interesting swim suit by Jantzen that comes rolled up in a tube. Add four ounces of water (directions say) and PRESTO—you have a weightless, breathtaking little Jantzen that slips on easily, dries in a wink, flatters your wickedly, and travels without adding appreciably to your luggage. Its price is $12.95. See it for instant excitement.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Clearance, weather information, assigned altitudes and airways, landing instructions... we take these for granted. We simply fly from point to point, our progress and safety undergirded by an intricate web of scientific communication.

Perhaps that's why, today, so many assume that some celestial system ought to assure everyone comfort, success and happiness.

But the control tower can operate only because every pilot respects its purpose and has faith in its instructions.

Our moral progress and our spiritual security are the constant concern of the Church. Its worship and guidance undergird the lives of all who respect its Purpose, and have faith in the truths of God which it teaches.

Sir Gaylord, Donut King, Cicada Out

Trio Is Scratched From Derby Today

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Fate's lightning struck quickly three times at Churchill Downs Friday and eliminated a trio of top horses from the 88th Kentucky Derby. But the biggest bolt was the astonishing injury which eliminated the favored Sir Gaylord and left big and tough Ridan the 21 favorite.

Hay owners said Sir Gaylord would be retired to stud.

A hairline fracture of the sesamoid bone of the right front leg, sustained during an early morning workout, knocked Sir Gaylord out of the $125,000-added races run Saturday and shattered the hopes of Christopher T. Chenery of Virginia. His champion filly, Cicada, also was withdrawn, as was the California colt Donut King, leaving 15 to battle over the 1 1/4 miles, starting at 4:30 p.m. EST.

Chenery was en route to Louisville by rail and didn't know of his misfortune for hours, as the train was 2 1/2 hours late. His trainer, Casey Hayes, already had taken Sir Gaylord out of the classic race for 3-year-olds after X-rays definitely disclosed the injury to his star's leg.

But he couldn't clarify Cicada's status until Chenery's arrival, although time was running short in the greatest pre-Derby drama in more than 30 years. Chenery and Hayes hurried to Sir Gaylord's barn at Churchill Downs, arriving in early afternoon.

Cicada had been entered in the $35,000-added Kentucky Oaks for 3-year-old fillies Friday afternoon. Hayes also had put her in the Derby as insurance against such a mishap that befell Sir Gaylord. Ridan, owned by Mrs. Moody Jolley, had barely beaten Cicada by a nose in the $100,000 Florida Derby on March 31.

"My first inclination was to run her in the Derby," said the crestfallen Chenery at a hastily summoned barnside press conference. "But now, my decision is 'No,' after conferring on the situation. Cicada had been prepared for the Oaks this afternoon. Her feeding was adjusted to this and it would have been upsetting now to change this."

Post Position

"Furthermore, she is in post position 15 and would be running against colts, which is asking too much. She is a great filly and I want to give her every chance."

Donut King, a California-bred colt, owned by Verne W. Winchell Jr. of Los Angeles, also was withdrawn. But this didn't come as such a shock. Donut King has been ailing with an infection in the left hind foot. The abscess was opened Friday and drained and the colt will try to make the Preakness May 19 in Baltimore.

With Ridan the new favorite after Sir Gaylord ruled as the early 8-5 favorite, Townsend B. Martin's Sunrise County moved into the second spot at 7-2.

Sir Ribot, a British-bred colt owned by Fred Turner Jr. of Midland, Tex., and who has raced in California, is the third choice at 6-1.

Doug, Cary, Palmer Tie In U. S. Open

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The $38,000 Tournament of Champions reached a blustery midpoint Friday with veterans Arnold Palmer, Doug Ford and Cary Middlecoff tied for the top spot with 36-hole scores of 139.

Playing the Desert Inn Country Club course in windy, 96-degree weather, Ford shot a 69—aided no little by a beautiful spoon shot on the 539-yard fifth hole that netted an eagle 3.

The ball stopped one foot from the cup.

Tournament favorite Palmer and the 41-year-old Middlecoff toured the par 36—72 course in 70 strokes apiece.

Billy Casper Jr., the 1959 National Open champion, shot the finest round of the tournament, a 67, despite an aching back.

The 67 gave the 30-year-old Apple Valley, Calif., pro, a 140, and a tie with Earl Stewart Jr., Jack Fleck and Australia's Bruce Crampton.

Defending champion Sam Snead who had a 70 Thursday, blew himself out of the front ranks of the small field of 28 players when he took a 3-over-par 7 on the ninth hole. He finished with 40-35—75 for 145.

Hard luck also hit two other co-leaders of the first round, Mike Souhak and Doug Sanders.

Marquez, the No. 3 ranked challenger from Stockton, Calif., called 118 1/4 for Friday night's 15-round tie fight against challenger Herman Marquez, who had a little trouble making the 118-pound limit.

"I wasn't worried about the weight," Marquez declared. "I KNEW I could get rid of four ounces in a few minutes."

The champion remained a 3-1 favorite. He has predicted victory by a knockout. "I'm trained to go the limit if necessary," he added.

Mexican-born Marquez, who depends on speed and boxing rather than a knockout punch, also remained confident, saying again "I'll fight my fight. I feel that will be good enough. Jofre is tough, but I'm ready."

Knights Take L-N Lead; E-Burg Wins; Slaters Lose

PEN ARGYL High School took sole possession of first place in the Lehigh-Northampton League yesterday after pounding Hellertown 8-2 at Weona Park Field, Pen Argyl.

Pen Argyl, defending league champions, and Hellertown had been tied for the top spot. The win gave the Knights a 4-1 record in the league (6-1 overall) to Hellertown's 3-2 loop ratings.

Around the circuit, however, the standings got closer as three teams tied for second place.

Yesterday, East Stroudsburg Cavaliers pulled it out of the fire with three runs in the last frame to nip Nazareth 4-3 and Wilson rattled Bangor High with a 10-4 defeat.

Eastburg, posting its third league win with two losses, was behind 3 to 1 going into the final inning.

Clint Alden registered his second straight win as he limited the Blue Eagles to but 5 hits and batted in two runs. With one out in the fourth, Eastburg's Mike Boushell singled, took second on a ground out and scored on Brian Farris's double.

In the explosive-winning 7th, the Cavaliers' scoring went like this: Farris lead off with a single, and 'Reliable Russ' Transue cracked a double. Pitcher Alden promptly sliced a double to score both runners with the typing runs. Alden's two-bagger was Eastburg's sixth double of the tilt.

Reese Singles

Billy Reese singled and Ron Spinner walked as the Cavaliers jammed the bases with no outs. Don Wescott flied out and Jack Vinyard fanned as the bases remained loaded.

Boushell hit a routine grounder to third side and the play was made at the plate in an attempt to catch Alden racing for home. The throw was low and Alden put the Cavs ahead for the winning run. Reese also attempted to race home on the same play was tagged out.

Pen Argyl Wins

Pen Argyl, gaining its 6-1 overall mark, stole eight bases along with connecting for 11 hits. Triples were the order of the day, as John Laky, Mike Manento, Dale

The scoring in the second frame resulted as Dick Kuster walked, and Dale Young tripled in two runs. Soph Bruce Hewett banged another triple to tally Young.

Manento Triples

In the fourth, Fred Sauerwine singled; Kuster walked, and Manento blasted a triple to account for two more runs. Hewett doubled home Manento and Laky's single pushed across Hewett.

A solo run in the 6th materialized as Laky tripled and crossed home via Bob Engler's single.

Dick Kuster posted his third triumph for Pen Argyl.

Slaters Are Beaten

Wilson broke a 1-1 tie in the second with three runs to move ahead of the Slaters then rolled for 6 more runs in the fourth.

The Slaters rapped out 11 hits to winners' 12 but some wild plays in the big fourth proved decisive.

The win pushed Wilson into a three-way tie for second place in the L-N loop.

Bangor suffered its fourth loss in five contests.

Bangor's Jim Parsons blasted 3-for-4 and tallied two runs to pace the Slater's advance. Frank Holland, Pete Speer and Brian Labar all posted 2-for-4 while at the plate.

Wilson's Werkheiser had a busy day with 3-for-4, two RBIs and three runs scored.

Knights Take L-N Lead; E-Burg Wins; Slaters Lose

PEN ARGYL High School took sole possession of first place in the Lehigh-Northampton League yesterday after pounding Hellertown 8-2 at Weona Park Field, Pen Argyl.

Pen Argyl, defending league champions, and Hellertown had been tied for the top spot. The win gave the Knights a 4-1 record in the league (6-1 overall) to Hellertown's 3-2 loop ratings.

Around the circuit, however, the standings got closer as three teams tied for second place.

Yesterday, East Stroudsburg Cavaliers pulled it out of the fire with three runs in the last frame to nip Nazareth 4-3 and Wilson rattled Bangor High with a 10-4 defeat.

Eastburg, posting its third league win with two losses, was behind 3 to 1 going into the final inning.

Clint Alden registered his second straight win as he limited the Blue Eagles to but 5 hits and batted in two runs. With one out in the fourth, Eastburg's Mike Boushell singled, took second on a ground out and scored on Brian Farris's double.

In the explosive-winning 7th, the Cavaliers' scoring went like this: Farris lead off with a single, and 'Reliable Russ' Transue cracked a double. Pitcher Alden promptly sliced a double to score both runners with the typing runs. Alden's two-bagger was Eastburg's sixth double of the tilt.

Reese Singles

Billy Reese singled and Ron Spinner walked as the Cavaliers jammed the bases with no outs. Don Wescott flied out and Jack Vinyard fanned as the bases remained loaded.

Boushell hit a routine grounder to third side and the play was made at the plate in an attempt to catch Alden racing for home. The throw was low and Alden put the Cavs ahead for the winning run. Reese also attempted to race home on the same play was tagged out.

Pen Argyl Wins

Pen Argyl, gaining its 6-1 overall mark, stole eight bases along with connecting for 11 hits. Triples were the order of the day, as John Laky, Mike Manento, Dale

Young, and Bruce Hewett each tabbed one.

The scoring in the second frame resulted as Dick Kuster walked, and Dale Young tripled in two runs. Soph Bruce Hewett banged another triple to tally Young.

Manento Triples

In the fourth, Fred Sauerwine singled; Kuster walked, and Manento blasted a triple to account for two more runs. Hewett doubled home Manento and Laky's single pushed across Hewett.

A solo run in the 6th materialized as Laky tripled and crossed home via Bob Engler's single.

Dick Kuster posted his third triumph for Pen Argyl.

Slaters Are Beaten

Wilson broke a 1-1 tie in the second with three runs to move ahead of the Slaters then rolled for 6 more runs in the fourth.

The Slaters rapped out 11 hits to winners' 12 but some wild plays in the big fourth proved decisive.

The win pushed Wilson into a three-way tie for second place in the L-N loop.

Bangor suffered its fourth loss in five contests.

Bangor's Jim Parsons blasted 3-for-4 and tallied two runs to pace the Slater's advance. Frank Holland, Pete Speer and Brian Labar all posted 2-for-4 while at the plate.

Wilson's Werkheiser had a busy day with 3-for-4, two RBIs and three runs scored.

20th District VFW Banquet At Stroudsburg Tomorrow

THE annual past commanders and past presidents banquet of the Dept. of Pennsylvania, 20th District, will be held at the home of Thomas P. Lambert Post 2540, starting at 6 p.m. Sunday.

The program will open with a welcome by Stephen Goldich, district judge advocate and former district commander, and a moment of silent prayer for deceased members.

The invocation will be by Donald Edelman, Nazareth, district chaplain, and will be followed by the pledge of allegiance.

The after dinner program will include introduction of the toastmaster, Robert Rabe, district trustee; introduction of guests; introduction of past commanders by Peter Szivos, Northampton, present district commander, and introduction of past presidents by Mildred Dean, Easton, present president.

Principal speaker will be Lt. Col. Lauriston A. Foss from Tobyhanna Signal Corps Depot.

A highlight of the program will be the introduction of John C. Mills, Jr., Brodheads, winner of the Pennsylvania VFW's "Voice of Democracy" contest. He will be introduced by Lawrence Savercool, commander of the local post.

The banquet committee includes seven persons from the local post. They are George Straka, Franklin E. Weller, Robert Hachtman, Martha Savercool, who is co-chairman, Georgia Albertson, decorations chairman, Dorothy W. Kitzman and Grace Shook.

Mrs. Pollan has been active in several civic activities.

As director of the Monroe County United Cerebral Palsy Unit, Mrs. Pollan will be responsible for all activities including (1) interpreting United Cerebral Palsy's program to the people of the county, (2) helping the victims of cerebral palsy receive help through the Home Service Program, and (3) fund raising.

Mrs. Pollan stated, "There is a real urgency to our 1962 campaign. We must make certain funds available to take advantage of the dramatic advances in professional skills and medical knowledge now available to help the cerebral palsied in Monroe County. We must join also in the mass assault on cerebral palsy through research at the national level which someday will lead to ultimate prevention of this viciouscrippler."

"United Cerebral Palsy's annual '53 Minute March' highlights the tragic fact that cerebral palsy strikes every 53 minutes some where in the nation. Its 1962 theme — 'If He Lived Next Door, Would You Help?' — dramatically underscores that those handicapped by cerebral palsy are everyone's neighbor. And cerebral palsy can strike anyone, anywhere, anytime," Mrs. Pollan declared.

Stress will be given to the importance of a "Home Service" program where trained personnel will go directly into the homes of the cerebral palsied and help in the care of these victims. The service will be continued in Monroe County with the financial cooperation of the residents," she said.

A trained specialist in this field has been engaged and makes regular visits to the county to aid the handicapped victims.
